February 4, 1997 LB 28, 85, 86, 97, 103, 114, 160, 221, 339
342, 344, 441, 486, 489
LR 32, 39

CLERK: I do, Madam President. Thank you. Your Committee on Revenue chaired by Senator Warner reports LB 28, (LB) 97, (LB) 342, (LB) 489 to General File. LB 86, (LB) 344, (LB) 486; General File with amendments. Those reports signed by Senator Warner. Government Committee reports LB 85, (LB) 103, (LB) 160, (LB) 441 to General File, and LB 221, LR 32CA to General File with amendments. LR 39 and (LB) 339 indefinitely postponed. Those signed by Senator Robinson. (See pages 502-04 of the Legislative Journal.) That's all that I have, Madam President.

SENATOR CROSBY: Thank you. Before continuing to LB 114, I...the Chair has been told that today is Senator Bohlke's 30th wedding anniversary and we'd all like to compliment you for your anniversary and you can stand and be recognized. Is the groom here? Senator Bohlke.

SENATOR BOHLKE: (Microphone not activated immediately)...members. Thank you very much. I thought you were going to compliment me on my choice, which I though was very excellent, too. So, thank you very much.

SENATOR CROSBY: I think it was probably a good choice both ways, Ardyce. LB 114.

CLERK: LB 114 by Senator Landis. (Read title.) The bill was introduced on January 9, referred to Banking, advanced to General File. I have no amendments to the bill.

SENATOR CROSBY: Senator Landis.

SENATOR LANDIS: Thank you, Madam President, members of the Legislature. I'm supposed to go to Kearney today, so I'm going to be leaving in about fifteen minutes, but I'll try to do this bill, and if we get to it, there's one other one down here that the committee acted on as well. This is the product of an interim study that Bill Marienau in my office did with both the Board of Accountancy and the Society of Certified Public Accountants. Both of those groups came in and testified in favor of the bill. It came out of committee eight to nothing, with the committee's unanimous endorsement. There are about three basic ideas in the bill. First, it moves from a one-year
